1. I informed Mr. Foley, Chief of the Internal Security Section, Criminal Division, Department of Justice, that the Director had approved the request of the Internal Security Subcommittee that the Department of Justice review the Executive Session testimony before the Subcommittee in connection with the Davies case, and that the Committee was being so informed in writing. Mr. Foley will make the necessary arrangements with the Committee to review the testimony under the conditions as set forth in my meeting of 14 October with Assistant Attorney General Olney.

4. Mr. [] called to state that he had heard from [] who has received a call from his correspondent [] who had been informed by their other correspondent, [] area, that [] felt that there was some important character in the area, but he was as yet unable to put his finger on him. It was believed that this character was hiding out with some [] collaborators who were afraid to come forward for fear of reprisals. I informed the DCI, who cabled this information to [] and the DCI gave me certain information to pass on to [] which I did.
